

As the woods of the Loire Valley prepare to resonate with the stag's bellow, treat yourself to a getaway in the heart of nature, surrounded by your loved ones. Les Sources de Cheverny is a secret whispered among vineyards and forests.

Easy back in after summer

Autumn is at our doorstep, bringing with it the desire to slow down the pace of a sometimes too active daily life. Our family home welcomes you to a pleasant place where well-being and discovery come together to offer a timeless escape.

Wake up facing nature in the cocoon-like atmosphere of our rooms and suites, and indulge in gourmet breakfasts delivered to your room. We are preparing a tailor-made experience to provide you with exceptional moments.

For wine enthusiasts, autumn is the perfect season to fully enjoy the grape harvest: wine tastings, exploring nearby vineyards, and meeting the most talented producers in the region... An epicurean adventure awaits you. It is also between mid-September and mid-October that the most majestic inhabitant of our woods shows its full splendor. Put on your boots and set out to discover the stag's bellow.

Between bike rides, sports activities, and visits to the castles of Chambord and Chenonceau, located just a stone's throw from our family home, there are plenty of opportunities for entertainment.

Yoga retreats

To harmonize your body and mind, our yoga retreats guide you on the path to well-being. Our packages includes : 2 nights at our family home, yoga sessions and meditation workshops, a care of your choice at the Spa by Caudalie, and delicious seasonal healthy meals by Frédéric Calmels.
